GARITO, Debtor. Bankruptcy No. 96-20359. United States Bankruptcy Court, D. Connecticut. March 20, 1997. Kenneth A. Plate, Hartford, CT, for Debtor. Kevin McKeon, for Chapter 13 Trustee. RULING ON TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION TO DEBTOR'S CLAIM OF EXEMPT PROPERTY ROBERT L. KRECHEVSKY, Bankruptcy Judge. I. ISSUE Joseph G. Garito ("debtor") has filed a Chapter 13 *549 petition.[1] In his schedules the debtor lists a personal property exemption in the amount of $1,900 under Conn.Gen.Stat. § 52-318(a) and $400 under Conn.Gen.Stat. § 52-352a(b)(8). The debtor's plan treats the personal property exemption as general unsecured debt. In addition, the debtor claims that certain goods, including the aforementioned personal property, are exempt pursuant to Conn.Gen.Stat. § 52-352a(b)(10) in the amount of $2,500. II. BACKGROUND The trustee has objected to the debtor's exemption claim on the grounds that the amounts set forth in the schedules are in excess of the limits prescribed by § 52-352a(b)(8) and that the personal property claimed as exempt is not the type of property which may be exempted. III. DISCUSSION A. The Personal Property Exemption Conn. 520fdb1ae7
