Senior Team Leader The Sloane Club

Having advanced through several leadership roles and launching a new section of the club, I began transforming our procurement systems. I am now exploring roles that allow me to focus 100% on hospitality systems innovation.

London / 2023-present

Team Leader The Sloane Club

After a year of entry-level work, I was promoted to a team leader, allowing me to leverage my studies in management and engineering and foster a high-performing team.

London / 2021-2023

Waitress The Sloane Club

This role placed me in the middle of the most intercultural city in the world, where I immediately focused on my goal of improving my English while elevating hospitality practices.

London / 2019-2020

Campus Tutor Genoa University

In my final year of studies, serving as a campus tutor deepened my communication and listening abilities and showed me the impact of discipline.

Savona, IT / 2018-2019

Hospitality Lead I Cinque

While managing stock and bar maintenance, I independently organized successful events, gaining skills in team coordination and knowing when to seek support.

Moneglia, IT / 2017-2020

Cocktail Waitress Miramare

At 19, I gained my first professional experience in hospitality during a busy Italian summer, successfully balancing work and studies.

Moneglia, IT / 2014-2016

WSET Level II

Ellis Richmond Wine

I studied the art and science of wine in my role as senior team leader for The Sloane Club, helping the organisation elevate this aspect of hospitality.

London / 2023-2024

Masters in Human Resources Mgmt Radar Academy

In the aftermath of Covid, I studied Human Resources Management to take my recent experiences in managing an elite team at a respected private club in London to the next level.

Milan IT / 2021

Bachelors in Industrial Management Engineering University of Genoa

As the elected student representative, I pushed my organizational skills to the limit while studying the optimization of production systems from economic, managerial, operational, and logistical perspectives.

Savona, IT / 2014-2019
