WELL SITE LEADER

TO WHOM THIS MAY CONCERN,

I am writing to let you know that I would like to for your open position at ExxonMobil. After 12+ years with TechnipFMC, I am ready for new challenges.

With that said, I am interested in finding a position as a Drill Site Manager/Subsea Supervisor where my background in Deepwater Completions can improve projects worldwide. My extensive knowledge with all aspects of upper completions, both horizontal and vertical, includes subsea distribution equipment installations and recovery, as well as troubleshooting procedures.

If the position has already been filled, please forward the enclosed resume to associates or colleagues who might be looking for an exemplary candidate to meet the demands. Thanks for your time in considering my request.

Sincerely,

Chris P. Hudson
