2021 Celebrating Rix Weaver

The 2021 Program is a celebration of Irene Rix Weaver, the first Jungian analyst in Australia. Rix trained in Zurich and met with Jung, including one very profound hour. She founded the CG Jung Society of WA (then known as the Analytical Club) on Jung's birthday in 1954.

The C G Jung Society of WA Library

You do not have to be a Library Member to visit the library and have a look. Society and Library Membership is required if you wish to borrow books and there is a borrowing limit. Books may be borrowed for one month at a time and can be renewed by phone or email if not required by another borrower. The library is open the first Sunday of the month 2-5pm. Library Members may also visit the library by appointment. Please contact Olive Mason (Librarian) on 9386 5968 or olivemason27@gmail.com or arrange a mutually suitable time.

C G Jung Society of Western Australia Inc

Program Guide 2021

The CG Jung Society of WA Inc is a non-profit association which aims to promote a greater understanding of Jungian Psychology. Monthly public meetings are held with speakers and films covering a variety of topics with a Jungian emphasis. Public seminars and workshops led by local, interstate, and international Jungian Analysts are also arranged by the Society. A comprehensive library, including rare editions and Jungian journals, is maintained by the Society.
