RONALDO SCHEMIDT AFP Ghana's information minister, Mr. Oppong Nkrumah, announced on Tuesday that senior minister Osafo Maafo had contracted with Covid-19, and confirmed that he had not disclosed any information until Mr Maafo himself. Nkrumah said: In a separate development that came to us this morning, Senior Minister Yaw Osafo Maafo was informed that his sample given for testing had been returned positively. Therefore, from today he will begin treatment of Covid-19 from home. A long list of Ghanaian officials with Covid-19 in accordance with the Transparency Policy of the Ghanaian government, Mr. Osafo Maafo joins a long list of Ghanaian officials who have shown the results of their Tests Covid-19 including the Minister of Health, Mr. Kwako Agyeman-Manu, and the former Deputy Minister of Trade and Industry, Mr. Carlos Ahrhenko, who retired recently. On 1 July 2020, Ovosou Afriye, Director-General of the Forestry Commission, died after a fierce battle with viral complications. Follow all the latest coronavirus news in Africa in our special live blog, Mr. Nkrumah has also updated the nation on the current status of President Akufo-Addo, who began his two-week self-isolation two days ago despite negative testing for the virus, wishing all patients suffering from the disease, including the Senior Minister, a speedy recovery. The Minister of Information reiterated that Mr. Akufo Addo continues to manage the affairs of the state from the presidential villa of the Jubilee House by phone and other means of technology.
