

SCOTTISH ENTERPRISE RESEARCH SERVICE

----- We provide free desk-based research for any company -----
working with Scottish Enterprise

How can we help?

We offer free and up-to-date business intelligence to help you grow your business.

Whether you want to identify new opportunities, target new markets or need insight to make informed decisions, we can help.

Our UK and international resources span a wide range of sectors and countries.

We provide extracts from our subscription market research reports - and signpost you to other trustworthy resources - to give you a truly tailored response.

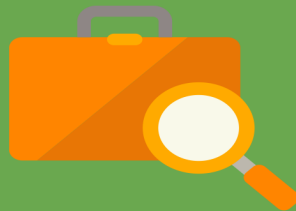

Market Research

Want to know where your market is headed or explore new opportunities?

We can provide trends and intelligence on markets and consumers.

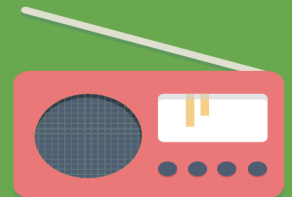

Company Intelligence

Want to know your competitor's turnover? Or find new partners and customers, and assess their credibility?

We can provide company lists, company reports and credit checks.

News

Want to know how much press coverage you or your competitors are getting?

We can search for and collate articles from a range of different news outlets.

Request Research

Simply call or email us with your company name, details of the information you need and why you need it.

We aim to give a tailored answer within 5 working days.

If you want to target overseas markets, you can also contact us via our international market research form. Visit www.scottish-enterprise.com/services/do-business-outside-scotland/international-market-research.
