

KILLANNE UNION OF PARISHES
CHURCH OF IRELAND
SEPTEMBER–NOVEMBER 2020

*When you reap the harvest of your land,
you shall not reap to the very edges of your field,
or gather the gleanings of your harvest.
You shall not strip your vineyard bare,
or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard;
you shall leave them for the poor and the alien:
I am the Lord your God.*

Leviticus 19:9-10

Baby Lucas

New Arrivals: Congratulations to the Poyntz family, to mum Jessica and dad Gordon on the arrival of baby Lucas.

Congratulations to the Rothwell family, to mum Hazel and dad David on the arrival of baby June.

Baby June

*The hearts of many,
are lifted by the arrival of one.*

Bereavements: Our thoughts and prayers are with the Furlong and Masterson families after the sudden death of Damien Furlong, after a short illness. In Ecclesiastes it reads; a time to weep, and time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

In life these times can merge as one. While in hospital it was arranged for Damien and his fiancée Sarah, to fulfil their hearts desire and become husband and wife. It was the happiest day of their lives. Appreciation to the Very Revd Maria Jansson, chaplain of Waterford hospital, who arranged for, and officiated at the wedding.

“What you leave behind is not what is engraved in stone, but what is woven into the lives of others”.

We also express our condolences to William Masterson and the wider family circle after the death of his sister Jean.

We continue to remember and pray for the family of Betty Binions, especially her son John and other family members and friends.

We also continue to remember in our prayers the family especially his son Willie, and friends of Sam Deacon who died peacefully at home. Earlier in that same week Sam had asked Willie to drive him round their property almost as if he was having a last look around, and like Sam, seeing that every thing was in proper order. Sam can say with surety, Well now, Well now, Well now.

Easter Vestry 2020

DUE TO NEW RESTRICTIONS WE HAVE HAD TO CANCEL THE EASTER VESTRY TILL FURTHER NOTICE

Harvest Services

Again due to the need for Covid 19 compliance it would be difficult to celebrate our Harvest services as we have done in previous years. With social distancing, the limit on numbers due to the church size and other concerns, our Harvest service will be at normal church times. It is also preferable and advisable that people restrict themselves to their own church due to the restriction on numbers each church can hold. However, despite the restrictions and changes we have to accommodate, I am grateful that although our expressions may change, the seasons and their abundance remain. We still have a reason to be thankful and celebrate. Please note Harvest times on the page with other service details.

Services continue to be available on the killanneunion.ie website. A massive thanks to Teri Morris for setting up and continuing to manage the parish website.

CDs of the services are also available so please contact me if you would like to avail of them or if you know someone who may benefit from them.

Revd Mike
