Download: Google Drive. Reading is the second part of IELTS IELTS and takes 60 minutes. It consists of three and sometimes four reading passages that increase complexity, and a total of 40 questions need to be answered. While you can mark and write on a question paper, you should enter your answers on the answer reader sheet, and keep in mind that there is no extra time to pass the answers from the test booklet to read the answer sheet.The academic and general reading tests are evaluated at the same level. However, since the texts in the academic reading test are more complex overall than in the general curriculum, more questions need to be correctly answered in the General Learning Test in order to get the same grade.
