Possibility Management Newsletter April 2021 - View online if it doesn't display correctly

Dear Friend of Possibility Management,

One of the most powerful forces at work in the Universe is Evolution. Stars and planets evolve. Plants and animals evolve. Consciousness evolves. Even Gameworlds evolve.

Possibility Management – just like every human-interaction platform in your life – is a Gameworld. Ever since its origins in 1975 – and especially since its formal inception in 1998 – the Gameworld of Possibility Management has been seriously evolving.

We report to you a new evolution in the Gameworld of Possibility Management.

For the longest time, even if you committed to an evolutionary Path of participating in 10 Possibility Labs, there was no Tribe in which we could belong to each other.

That has changed. A Tribe has emerged... The Tribe is called Possibilitator Training!

There is sadness among us that such a Space has been missing for so long, and also great joy to finally have a playing field in which to connect with each other!

As explained on the Possibilitator Training website, the verb 'to possibilitate' means 'to render possible'.

This term was first recorded in writing in the The Quarterly Review: Principles of Elementary Teaching, January/April 1829, page 134 edited by Sir John Taylor Coleridge et. al.

A 'possibilitator' is, therefore, 'one who possibilitates'.

The term 'Possibilitator', spelled with a capital 'P', indicates 'a possibilitator who consciously Possibilitates in the service of Bright Principles, and in the Possibility Management Context of Radical Responsibility'. We develop these skills together in Possibilitator Training.

If finding a home in the Possibilitator Tribe sparks interest in you... please read through the Possibilitator Training website and connect in. Full details are there. We have been missing you.

THREE ADDITIONAL AMAZING THINGS

1. GEN Ecovillage Online Summit 2021

GEN stands for 'Global Ecovillage Network'. Until Thursday 22 April 2021 at 17:00 (5pm) GMT+0, all presentations from the GEN 2021 Online Summit are available for free online, including the Anna Kavasna interview of Anne-Chloé Destremau and Clinton Callahan about gameworlds, authentic adulthood initiatory processes, nanonations, and next culture. Many more fascinating presentations offer enriching distinctions and real-life stories. Here is the link: <https://summit2021.ecovillage.org/speakers/>

2. World Unity Week

World Unity Week 19-26 June 2021 is now self-organizing in a Circle. You may have something Legend Making to contribute during one of the Open Space rooms. The team is 'calling for programs' now, and if you would like to meet them in person, we meet during a Zoom call every Wednesday at 10:00am (GMT+0). To connect in, use the simple form at: <https://worldunityweek.org/about/>

3. Gaian Gameworlds

You would think that understanding how to build and inhabit a Gameworld is mindblowing enough... but any Gameworld that does not nurture the ecological health and diversity of Gaia's aliveness is a parasitic Gameworld. This distinction is a wake-up call and simultaneously a map for how to create and inhabit 'Gaian Gameworlds'. There is a new website with further distinctions, hints, encouragements, and Experiments to try at: <http://gaiangameworlds.org>.
