I'm still alive, but I barely breathe Just praying to God that I do not believe in Because I have time until she got freedom, because when the heart breaks, no, it does not break evenHer the best days were some of my worst She finally met the man who was going to put her first until I was widely awake she had no problem sleeping because when the heart does not break, do not even break ... Even... No, what do I have to do when the best part of me has always been you? And what do I have to say when I'm dead and you're okay? I fall to pieces, yes, I fall to piecesThey say bad things happen for a reason, but no wise words are going to stop the bleeding because it has moved on while I'm still grieving And when my heart breaks no, it's not break-even, even ... No, what am I going to do when the best part of me has always been you? And what do I have to say when I'm dead and you're okay? I fall to pieces, yes, I fall to pieces, yes, I fall to pieces (one is still in love and the other goes away) I fall to pieces (Because when the heart breaks no, it does not break into pieces)Oh, you got his heart and my heart, and none of the pain you took the blame. Now I'm trying to figure out that there's not much left because you left me without love, without love for my name. I'm still alive, but I barely breathe Just praying to God that I don't believe in, because I have time until she got her freedom, because when my heart breaks, no, it's not a break...
