TEA & QUILT AUCTION 2026 - ASIAN GARDEN

IT'S COMING FASTER THAN WE THINK!

The Tea & Quilt Auction is our guild's largest fundraising activity and is integral to our continued ability to fulfil the mission of the guild which is to preserve the heritage of quilt making and to educate the public as to its significance; to further the quilting knowledge, education and skill levels of the members of this Guild through educational meetings, quilting workshops, social activities, travel, and friendship; and to provide opportunities for Guild members to use their skill and talents for philanthropic projects that make items to benefit local communities other philanthropic organizations.

This costs money and the Tea & Auction financially support everything we do, plus, it's a wonderfully enjoyable and fun event!

BUT IT CAN'T HAPPEN WITHOUT YOUR SUPPORT!

Tea & Quilt Auction co-Chairs, Maryjo and Shari Gray, request your support with creating this marvelous event. The event will be here before we know it and having your commitment NOW will make the work of the Tea & Quilt Committee much easier. Please take a look at the list of volunteer positions to fill. Please see Maryjo or Shari to volunteer or to find out more information about a position. Seller positions are for about one hour. We need ticket sellers, boutique workers, people to help check in guests, people to collect payments from winners, and more. Maryjo and Shari have a sign up sheet at every meeting; please take a look to see what YOU can do that day!

BOUTIQUE AT THE TEA AND AUCTION

BY BARBRA RILEY,
BOUTIQUE COORDINATOR

In 2024 the Boutique did not make a significant contribution to the income at the Tea and Auction. We would like to change that for the upcoming Tea.

The people coming to our Tea are not the same ones looking for bargains at the Christmas craft show or at the summer concerts. That means prices can be a little higher and we have a greater opportunity to take advantage of impulse purchases. To do that, we need to have cute, eye-catching items and an attractive display. Items should also be clearly priced so that no one has to ask, "How much is this?"

With those things in mind, a bit of prior planning is required. As much information about the items we will have available needs to be known early. What we will be selling, how it is displayed and how it is priced are all important questions.

If you have made something for the Boutique or plan to make something, please fill out a brief form (available at the next general meeting) indicating your plans and turn it in to Barbra Riley. Organization and prior planning can make the difference between "Okay" and "Great". We aim for a great outcome with this year's Boutique.

The Boutique will be discussed in more detail at the next "Tea" meeting.

WAYS & MEANS UPDATE

I am still doing research on fundraising ideas for after the Tea but if anyone has any ideas they like feel free to email me!

In February I will be getting together with Shari at the storage unit to pick out some quilt top ideas for our next opportunity quilt.

Thanks, sincerely,

Shar

HEARTS FOR PHILANTHROPY

BY HELENE BORN

On Monday January 12, 2026, several AQG members, friends and members of the Church of Jesus Christ Latter-Day Saints gathered to work on philanthropy heart pillows. These pillows will be donated to the George Key School in Placentia as a gift to their severely handicapped students. The request for the donation came from Linda Badillo who volunteers and works to obtain grants for this school.

Sonia Das, philanthropy chair, gave authority to Helene Born to spearhead this project. The location for the workday was coordinated by Diane Sanchez.

The names of the members from The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints who helped are Linda Bird, Roberta Capistrano, Carolyn Elliott, Shelley Hawley, Wayne Kent Johnson, Joann Nau, Jennie Newman, Tracy Reed, Diane Sanchez, Hal Schulze, and Melissa Schulze.

The names of the Acacia guild members and friends that came to help are Helene Born, Roxie Sherratt, Janine D'Anna, Dora Luz Arroyo, Joan Sento, Carolyn Fallon, (not pictured) Pat Sorensen and Isabel Cervantes.

It was a wonderful day! We were amazed and overjoyed to get 60+ pillows cut, sewn and stuffed on this day. Each person's contribution is greatly appreciated! We will present fifty pillows to Linda who will represent the school at our February meeting.

Here are some pictures of the sewing day event.

PHILANTHROPY

BY SONIA DAS

Many thanks to Helene Born and Diane Sanchez for spearheading the heart pillow project for the students of the George Key School in Placentia. Over 60 pillows were made. See separate article for details and photos.

Philanthropy will continue to make kits (quilts, pillowcases, stockings, placemats) for the various charities it serves. However, we would like to ask members to focus on quilts and boutique items for the Tea & Quilt Auction.

If you have any suggestions for boutique items, please contact Barbra Riley, Tea Boutique Chair.

Thank you so much in advance for your kindness and generosity!

TREASURER'S REPORT

Our cash flow is in good standing, for the month of December we had a net total of $170.11. Our banking balance has been stable with our checking and CD accounts.

We are moving forward with the Tea and Quilt auction but have some concerns regarding the level of proceeds from this event. We use the funds from this luncheon to cover the expenses for our guild for a two-year period. Please invite non-quilting friends and encourage your guest to submit a bid, even if it is the opening bid. Part of the fun in this event is to inspire and excite our attendees.

Feel free to contact me should you have any questions regarding our finances. Reports are available on request.

MIDNIGHT GARDEN - OPPORTUNITY QUILT

Thank you to all who worked at Candy Cane Lane on December 13. We made $123.00 on ticket sales at this event and sold $195.00 in boutique products.

We did not have enough white glove volunteers to qualify to take our quilt to Road to California in January.

We were supposed to go to the Inland Empire guild on January 12, 2026, but I didn't have it in my calendar so missed this meeting. I have asked to reschedule.

Below is the list of locations set to show the quilt. We are always looking for assistance in attending these events. Please let me know if you'd like to take the quilt or attend with me at any scheduled showing. The quilt is getting a genuinely nice reception at each location and many compliments.
