The list of 23 sports was revealed during a meeting between the European Olympic Committees (EOC) and a delegation from Poland at the headquarters of the Italian Olympic Committee (CONI) in Rome (ITA). Acting President Nils Nigard said: This was a very productive meeting and we were very pleased to see such a strong commitment from the Polish delegation. It was a great start, we worked as a team and achieved concrete results by setting an accurate roadmap for the future. We look forward to continuing in the same vein. The report said the discussions were based on preparations for the Games, the proposed sports program and the philosophy of the European Games, including potential opportunities for Poland, Krakow and the Malopol region.
