[Verse]

Same dances in the same old shoes
Some habits that you just can't lose
There's no telling what a man might use

After the thrill is gone

The flame rises but it soon descends

Empty pages and a frozen pen

You're not quite lovers and you're not quite friends

After the thrill is gone, oh

After the thrill is gone

What can you do when your dreams come true

And it's not quite like you planned?

What have you done to be losing the one

You held it so tight in your hand well

Time passes and you must move on

Half the distance takes you twice as long

So you keep on singing for the sake of the song

After the thrill is gone

After the thrill is gone

[Bridge]

You're afraid you might fall out of fashion
And you're feeling cold and small
Any kind of love without passion
That ain't no kind of loving at all, well

[Outro]

Same dances in the same old shoes
You get too careful with the steps you choose
You don't care about winning but you don't want to lose
After the thrill is gone
After the thrill is gone
After the thrill is gone, oh
After the thrill is gone
