

KNOWING YOU

by: MARIA LUISA A. MANOLOTO

Language is the first thing you need to learn,

When you start to talk on your own.

It may have a sound,

But no words at all.

Hearing the elders talk,

Makes me want to spoke.

Seeing them laugh while I rap,

'Cause the words I say is like a wrap.

Growing with them I learned something,

At some point, sometimes you should not but in;

In some conversation that they only knew,

The only thing you can do is review.

Caring for someone can be shown,

When you give encouraging words to learn.

Loving someone is easy...

When you can communicate lovingly.
