THE JOURNEY

Europe's imperial heart, traveled privately — eleven days through three great capitals that once shared an empire. Begin in Budapest, where the Danube divides Buda from Pest and the first afternoon ends in steaming thermal water; travel on to Vienna by way of Bratislava's baroque old town, for Hofburg grandeur, Schönbrunn gold and music in the air; then finish in Prague, stopping in storybook Český Krumlov along the way. Private drivers, expert local guides, five-star hotels, and every entry arranged in advance — you simply show up and enjoy.

DAY BY DAY

Day 1 — Arrive in Budapest. VIP meet-and-greet at the airport and a private transfer to your city-center hotel; in the afternoon, Budapest's great tradition — its historic thermal baths, with entries and a private changing room.

Day 2 — Budapest: markets & grand landmarks. Half-day private tour beginning in the markets, among local flavors and artisan stalls, continuing to the majestic Parliament (entry included) and ending in a historic coffeehouse from Hungary's golden age.

Day 3 — The Pest side. Half-day private tour of the Liszt Academy of Music, the Great Synagogue — among the most significant in Europe — and the grand squares and basilicas of Pest, entries included.

Day 4 — The Buda side. Half-day private tour of Castle Hill: Matthias Church and the Fisherman's Bastion, with sweeping views across the Danube to Pest; the remainder of the day at leisure.

Day 5 — Budapest to Vienna via Bratislava. Private transfer with a four-hour stop in Bratislava for a private tour of its cobbled, baroque Old Town; continue to Vienna and settle in.

Day 6 — Imperial Vienna. Full-day private tour of the Hofburg Palace, once the heart of the Habsburg Empire, and Schönbrunn Palace, with a stroll through the historic center's elegant churches and architectural treasures; entries included.

Day 7 — Vienna, art & music. Full-day private tour from the Secession Building to the Belvedere, home to Klimt's masterpieces; in the evening, a classical concert in the city that perfected it.

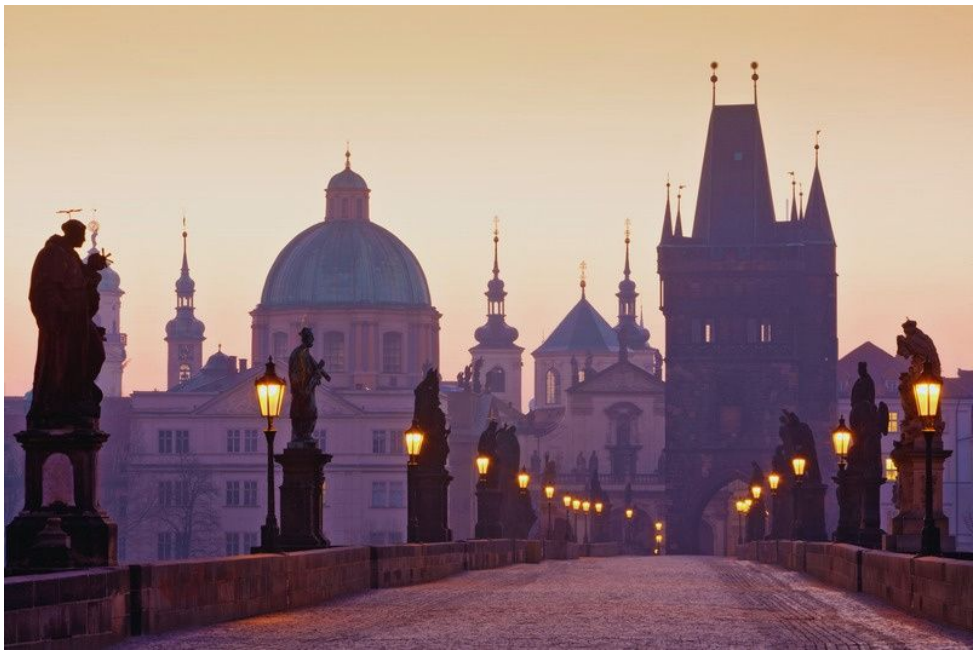

Day 8 — Vienna to Prague via Český Krumlov. Private transfer with driver and tour leader, stopping in the UNESCO-listed medieval town of Český Krumlov for a private guided tour and castle entry; arrive in Prague by evening.

Day 9 — Prague's Old Town & Jewish Quarter. Half-day private tour of the Jewish Quarter, including the Old-New Synagogue and the Old Jewish Cemetery, then the Old Town's squares and landmarks, a walk across the Charles Bridge, and Smetana Hall; entries included.

Day 10 — Castle District & the Sedlec Ossuary. Half-day private tour of the Castle District — St. Vitus Cathedral, the Golden Lane, the Strahov Library and the Loreto Chapel; in the afternoon, a private excursion to the Sedlec Ossuary, the haunting chapel adorned in human bone.

Day 11 — Departure. Private transfer to Prague Airport, with VIP assistance on departure.

Included throughout: VIP airport assistance on arrival and departure, private airport and intercity transfers (with the Bratislava and Český Krumlov touring stops en route), private guides and drivers as listed, all scheduled entries — Parliament, the thermal baths, both Vienna palaces, the synagogues, churches and galleries named above — classical concert tickets in Vienna, and 10 nights in 5-star hotels with breakfast.
