

An Opportunity to share Appreciation, celebrate Our Diversity and facilitate Connections in our Industry.

March 7-13, 2021 Women In Construction Week

Kraus-Anderson invites you to celebrate the women in our industry by joining us for a conversation with Lorien Barlow, Director and Producer of the first feature-length documentary to tell the stories of women in construction trades, Hard Hatted Woman.

Learn how the idea for the film first came about, some of the biggest challenges and rewards in the creation process, and get an update on the film's progress – including how you can support...and get a sneak preview before it comes to a theatre near you!
