EUNICE UKWUANI

ATTORNEY | PUBLIC SERVANT | DIPLOMATIC LIAISON | HUMANITARIAN

County Committee Member, District 58 - Brooklyn, New York

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Eunice Ukwuani is an attorney, public administrator, elected community leader, diplomatic liaison, business executive, and humanitarian. She holds a law degree and a Master of Public Administration and practices criminal law.

In public service, she won election as a County Committee Member representing District 58 in Brooklyn, New York. Her work centers on legislative advocacy, intergovernmental affairs, civic participation, and building effective relationships with elected officials, diplomats, and community-based thought leaders.

LEADERSHIP & PUBLIC IMPACT

Eunice serves as Chairperson and President of Green World Business Holdings Corp and as CEO of Property Rialto. She is also Marketing Director and Public Relations lead for The Opializer Show.

As a New York Peace Commissioner for the PeaceBuilding Commission, she brings years of experience working with senior organizational leaders and leading diplomats across Africa and the United States. Her diplomatic and political work reflects a commitment to public policy, coalition building, peacebuilding, and community advancement.

HUMANITARIAN SERVICE

Driven by a deep commitment to humanity, Eunice has served with local and international organizations holding United Nations consultative status, including Lotus Initiative for the Blind, UCT International Cultural Development Inc., and Smarter Lives-Diligent Care for Creative Intelligence.

She is the President and Founder of the Princess Eunice Ukwuani Foundation, which supports girls and women around the world, with a special focus on Africa. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the foundation joined forces with her brother, a physician at NYU Hospital, to distribute personal protective equipment, masks, and hand sanitizer to New Yorkers.
