Rix Weaver Interview on Dreams

Lecture: Friday, July 16, 2021 7:30 pm

With a discussion led by Jungian Analysts Manita Beskow and Gerald Burns

We have a short film of an interview with Rix interpreting the dreams of people from the audience. We will then be joined by Jungian Analysts Manita Beskow and Gerald Burns who will talk about their experience of Rix and working with dreams.

It is quite amazing to watch Rix interpret a dream from someone that she does not know. You can see her intuitive ability but also her knowledge of myths and story and archetypal themes. Obviously, it is not ideal as she is not be able to ask for associations or what is consciously happening in a person's life but she gives very important clues as to how a person might work with arises in their dream.
