Unmasking the devil

The number one key we must establish in spiritual warfare is fear of the Lord. Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy is understanding. (Until 9:10 NIV)... Fear of the Lord means to honor him, to be delighted with who he is. (pages 78 and 79). The author of the book The Devil's Exposure is a man who worked for Many Years for Satan, trained to be the third high priest in New York. He is also now a man saved by the grace and mercy of the One, who has the number one key that we must establish in spiritual war, it is the fear of the Lord. Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy is understanding. (Until 9:10 NIV)... Fear of the Lord means to honor him, to be delighted with who he is. (pages 78 and 79). The author of the book The Devil's Exposure is a man who worked for Many Years for Satan, trained to be the third high priest in New York. He is also now a man saved by the grace and mercy of the One who has all the power over sin, Satan, and death, Jesus Christ. Few people at the level he has achieved in worshipping the devil are willing to leave this life behind to be a servant of the Lord. Fewer more will be the people who will write to expose how anyone, including Christians, can unknowingly be trapped by the devil and how to avoid these traps or be free from them. Evangelist Ramirez shared powerful truths in this guidebook. He writes about the many different ways that one has taken away from surrendering Jesus in the first place (if one is already a believer) or tries some of the seemingly innocent ways to follow the devil's paths. There are a few he writes about that I didn't know and a few that I knew. What's more, the author writes about how to escape, get out of, or help others out of Satan's grip. He uses the supporting scriptures and shares several important prayers and other information that can help us walk with the Lord. One thing he writes about when he was a satanic admirer, which shows how the prayers of believers answered, how he would go through different neighborhoods and throw curses and insults: ... in some areas I met strong resistance and at first could not understand where the opposing forces came from... Finally I realized that these were unpleasant Christians praying for their neighborhoods... Wherever the Christian worshippers lived, I could not enter the area. The author writes that spiritual warfare is the most important practice in which we must understand and actively participate. John Ramirez understands both sides of this challenge - he knows how the devil and his minions work, and he knows the unlimited power of an almighty God, and how we have the ability to act in the name of Jesus -- never our own forces -- through spiritual warfare, intercessory prayer, and Ministries. The Devil's Exposure is a critical book for Christians of this generation in our country to read. But read slowly. There were times that I couldn't digest more than a few pages at one time. Understand where the Lord calls you. Along with the Bible and my favorite Books on Bible or Bible Studies, I believe it should be convenient to use and study the scriptures to which they refer. Reread it, perhaps save a second copy to give to someone who really needs it. Remember that greatest title in the Kingdom of the Servant. It's time to take a towel, wrap it around our waist, and get to the battlefield. (pg. 119) I strongly recommend exposing the devil to those who want to escape the pitfalls of Satan who want to help our homes, churches, and neighborhoods be freed from the slavery of these traps. With a grateful heart, I received a copy of this book from the Online Book Club in exchange for an honest review. All opinions are my own, and no monetary compensation has been received for this review. ... More John Ramirez This book will keep you three steps ahead of the devil!
