

Grace started dancing at the age of 3 at B.Funk Dance Company, joined their competition team when she was 5 years old and the hip-hop Crew team when she was in middle school. She has trained in ballet, tap, jazz, contemporary, lyrical, and hip-hop under Desiree Koontz-Nachtrieb, JR Combest, Wyndee McGovern, Tim Roberts, Angela Worley, Becky Funk, and Laura Edwards. Throughout her competitive dance years, she has won various awards and scholarships at competitions and conventions. Auditioning into Centennial High School's Junior and Senior Dance Company, Grace was elected captain for three years and took two research classes studying choreography, teaching beginner dancers. She is currently attending the University of Maryland pursuing a major in Economics in hopes of working in the business side of dance. Grace has grown up assisting classes at the studio and is eager and excited to be back to where her passion for dance started!
