My friends and I have this game when I was young and loved it so much, it fueled our imagination and it was apparently the ideas put into a game, it was fantastic! Naturally, it was still being updated then, but it looks like blue gnc just stopped doing it :(and that's the worst thing because this game is so incredibly simple but captivating. There are also fixes to make to this game, such as, app crashes after trying to buy a new hero. That happened to me many times and it was frustrating because I was trying to buy the hero Gear-X which is 30k gold, so to save time I bought the gold and the game crashed and didn't give it to me. I lost about 2 dollars of that and it would be greatly appreciated if you guys would start working on this again! This game is totally worth 5 stars, but until the money stealing faults is fixed I can't give you what you deserve. I was fondly surprised when I downloaded this game a long time ago. For an iPhone game, this feels very healthy, like something on Xbox Arcade. The gameplay is simple, but very flexible. You can select from a variety of units and skills in Disposal. Honestly, I wish you could further improve your mana regeneration speed, because later in the game, you can never have enough. There are also times when you can control your hero to defend against enemies and complete short targets. Late in the game it becomes difficult to get decent units due to the high mana cost. I don't like this because they are forced to lose their precious apartments slots in weak units instead of things that will really help you. Overall I give this game an 8.9/10, because it is one of the nicest iPhone games I have ever played. Suddenly I missed this game, so I checked the App Store. I saw cartoon wars 3 and gave it a try... and it was really disappointing. This game was awesome! This may be asking a lot, especially since there may be only a few of us who want this game back, but can you please update it for the latest iOS? I want to play the whole game again! Tower mana, heroes, and that hell game mode!!! I want to grind xp and gold and get the best upgrades and send an entire fleet of angel-robot-helicopter-ninja drilling machine-machine tanks to my enemy and kick their demonic dragon monster eyeballs out of their cavities as their tower crumbles to ashes. This game is fun, but when I updated phone said that the developer has to update the game. They made me because I was on stage 160 and then he said the game is outdated when I tried to play it. But the game was fun and I had to quit because I kicked out and said the developer has to make more updates. I hope this game gets more updates because it's boring now, but I still can't play the game because I have an iPhone 6s. I played CartoonWars for a week and got to level 156 and then the game needs more update. So I quit the game because it wasn't meant for my phone again. But there is a new game called Cartoon Wars 3 and it doesn't look so fun so I stopped playing all the cartoon wars so thx to read this and I hope you update the old cartoon wars and put up more weapons and battle against your friends while your bored or want something to play. I hope the game gets better one 😊😊😊 my 4 year old loves this game. The only problem is that a new game always accidentally starts. I know this game probably wasn't made for toddlers, but there was once you got to level 56 and accidentally pressed new game. I was so upset and sad at the same time. I would like the new button to be in the settings area. Please help and solve that problem. Others then that the game is great. This game is fun and everything except for a defect, after stage 14 you can no longer win. My mans generator is fully updated and my gunner and machine gunner are fully improved, but enemy troops come too fast. I thought if I bought some gold in the store, I could improve some things to make the battle for me. When I got to the store, he asked me which gold package I wanted to buy. I chose 500,000 gold (in-game currency) for $5.99. I wrote my Apple ID and the transaction was passed. I went back to the main menu of the game and noticed that it had no gold. 2 minutes later I received an email that said $5.99 was taken from my account, so I was sure it was deceived. I'm not sure if this is a flaw or maybe even on purpose put into the game. Until I get my gold, this game stays in a 1 star. I'm not going to tear this post down either until my gold. I advise readers not to buy this game because it definitely isn't worth 99 cents if you're only going to eliminate the game in an hour.
