Filter filters should be cleaned after each use using water to remove any small debris. If filters are used for too long, they will change color and worsen, which means that water health is not maintained effectively. Dirty filters can also cause E02 errors to appear on the pump. If you are unable to clean the filters they should be replaced. Water it is important that you maintain the health of your water with chemicals. If chemicals are not used in water it can cause bacteria to accumulate, which can cause skin problems and worsen the spa. For more information about chemicals please visit our Chemicals. Cleaning spa In order to clean the spa, (covers and inflatable) solution solution Fluid washing should be used. If you have problems with stains, then a stain remover can be purchased from www.bestwayaftersales.co.uk Cleaning the pump to clean the spa pump through please see our back wash procedure, which may be located in the troubleshooting section of the site. As you fix the puncture It is important to the inflatable part you repair completely dry before the repair patches are used. It is very important to ensure that this remains in full connection with the item before it is again overstated. Due to the high demand, we currently have very limited availability of hot tubs.
