This causes cell molecules to move and bump into each other. Diffusion is one of the results of this molecular movement. Diffusion is the random movement of molecules from a higher concentration area in the area of lower concentration. diffusion and Osmos Problems Directions: Explore cell diagrams. On each diagram, a cell with a permeable membrane is placed in a glass containing substances dissolved in water. Draw a blue arrow to show the movement of the water. Draw a black arrow to show the movement of any other materials. 20and%20Osmosis%20Review%20Worksheet%202.pdf Osmosis Answer is the key. Display the top 8 sheets found for - Osmosis Answer Key.
