Journey through the most dramatic and picturesque region of China, in comfort and style, aboard a Victoria cruise on China's Yangtze River. Along the historic river banks, the ancient and modern come together as you explore idyllic streams, remote villages, historic temples, three dramatic Gorges and one amazing engineering marvel. Onboard, you'll enjoy informative and entertaining river talks, nightly entertainment, cultural presentations, Tai Chi lessons, calligraphy demonstrations and superb international cuisine.

The Victoria Jenna

The deluxe Victoria Jenna, recently renovated in 2018, features elegant and spacious public areas on five passenger decks. All staterooms and suites have private balcony, bathrooms with tub and shower, in-room refrigerators, safes, and flat-screen TVs with international cable including HBO and CNN. There are two restaurants (a single-seating main dining room and an a la carte restaurant on the top deck), an atrium lobby, the Yangtze Club for cocktails and entertainment, fitness center, lecture room, business center, reading room and a gift shop.

Pacific Delight Tours includes a Yangtze River cruise on four of its best-selling programs, exclusively featuring Victoria Cruise Lines, which is the gold standard for luxury cruising on the Yangtze. Pacific Delight's participants on Yangtze cruises enjoy a special luxury amenities package that includes an upgraded dining and beverage package, access to the Executive Lounge, complimentary WiFi, and more.

Richard Carpentier, Cruise Director

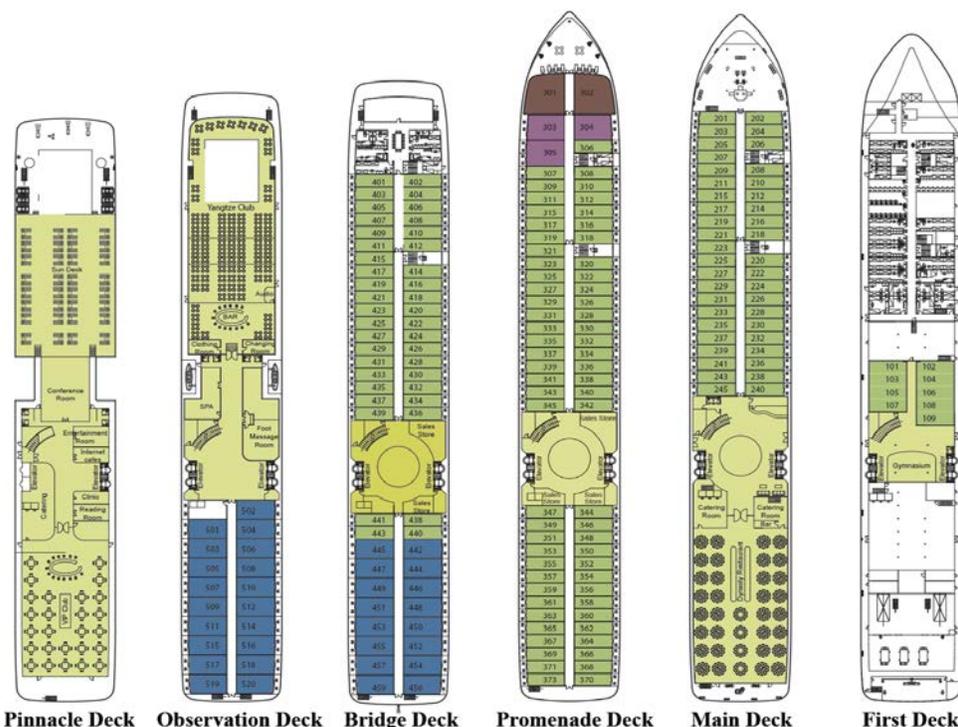

Dick was the first Cruise Director on the S.S. Norway (formerly S.S. France) where he instituted that line's award-winning onboard service standards. He also worked with Royal Viking, Norwegian, and Royal Caribbean and for the past 17 years, at Victoria Cruise Lines, Dick has taken part in the incredible transformation of the Yangtze River with ever increasing commitment to providing unparalleled sincerity and service on Victoria's fleet.

Dai Bo - Captain, Victoria Jenna

Captain Dai was given the designation as a Five Star Captain by the Bureau of Yangtze Shipping and Transportation in 2014 and his management team has been named Advanced Group on Energy Conservation and Environmental Protection by the Maritime Authority. With decades of experience on the Yangtze River, working his way up on several Victoria ships, Captain Dai is one of the most experienced river captains on China's longest and most dramatic waterway.
