That's why another popular name for lined paper writes a paper or document. What is lined paper? Lined paper is a type of written paper that contains horizontal lines that are used as a guide for more legible and consistent writing. In the United States, the three most common standard formats are: college rules, a broad document and a narrow document ruled. The college ruled the document is the most popular format and is largely used by university and college students. The distance between the lines is 9/32 inches this is the reason why it is also mentioned as a medium excluded paper. Wide rule paper is commonly used by children in elementary school because it has more generous line intervals that helps beginners with their handwriting. The space between the lines is 11/32 inches. The narrow rule document is usually offered by those who want to fit more text on the page but still like to maintain the structure that the line of paper offers. For this format, the distance between the lines is 1/4 inch. Printed lined paper We made this printed lined paper for you. Below are 3 paper templates for the most common standard formats.
