Editorial note: The vast Kruger National Park extends across two southern African provinces: Mpumalanga and Limpopo. Kruger National Park is highly regarded for its successful environmental management and its efforts to preserve wildlife and the history of the region. Bushmen rock carvings and archaeological sites record the history of people who lived here in past centuries. Wildlife in the park includes the Big 5 of Africa (elephant, rhino, buffalo, lion and leopard) other large predators, small animals, birds and predators. The adjoining Kruger National Park has a number of private game reserves providing luxury accommodation, game drives, bush walks and with some camps offering elephant back safaris. Roads in Kruger Park are either resin (asphalt) or well maintained gravel roads. The speed limit in the park is 50 km/h (31 mph) on tar roads and 40 km/h (25 mph) on gravel roads. However, slower driving is recommended for a good viewing experience. Map of Kruger National Park © 2011 FindTriplnfo.com and Kruger-2-Kalahari.com.
