

MOLD CLASSIFICATIONS

Which Class is Right for Your Project?

Class 101

Cycles: One million or more
Quality: High
Price: High
Uses: High quality production and fast cycle times

Class 102

Cycles: Not exceeding one million
Quality: Medium to High
Price: Fairly High
Uses: Parts with tight tolerances and/or abrasive materials

Class 103

Cycles: Not exceeding 500,000
Quality: Medium
Price: Mid-range
Uses: Low to medium production parts

Class 104

Cycles: Not exceeding 100,000
Quality: Low
Price: Low to mid-range
Uses: Limited production of non-abrasive parts

Class 105

Cycles: Not exceeding 500
Quality: Very low
Price: Low to accommodate limited number produced
Uses: Prototypes