The magus bride ruth

Ulysse (ユリシィ Yurishī) (Former) Isabel (Mistress)Chise Hatori (Owner) Ruth (ルツ Rutsu) is Chise's familiar, a Church Grim. He shares a mental link with Chise. Appearance Ruth has two forms. His black grim form is that of a large black dog with pure black fur. He reaches up to Chise's rib cage and has red eyes. In human form, Ruth has red eyes, (the same colour as his eyes in his dog form), light brown skin and wavy black hair, (that also resembles the fur in his dog form). In human form, he usually wears a grey top with darker grey stripes, a black jacket, black trousers and black shoes. Personality Ruth shows great resolve, both with his previous owner and Chise. He has a mental link between a familiar and master, and as such shares memories, feelings, and even lifespan with Chise. He uses his link to tell others what his master is feeling, when she is unwilling to. Ruth has shown to care very much about Chise. He tends to be suspicious of people who take an interest in Chise. A dog in his past life, he finds it difficult not to chase small creatures. History Ruth's original name was Ulysse, given to him by his owner Isabel. Isabel was killed by an oncoming carriage. At the funeral, Ruth believed she would wake up eventually and stayed by her grave until he died. However, due to his overwhelming desire to see his owner again, he became a church grim (or black grim), a fae who protects the church and graveyard, also chasing grave robbers away. He also continued believing he was human up until his meeting with Chise. Plot Originally known as Ulysse, he was first seen by Chise in a graveyard. Ulysse protected Chise when an evil spirit attacked her, punching the spirit in the face. Ulysse lost conscienceness shortly after this and had a dream about his original owner, Isabel. Alice, the student of Mikhail Renfred then approached the Church Grim, Ulysse, intending to take him for her teacher, (as the wicked sorcerer, Cartaphilus demanded Renfred to bring the Church Grim to him, so he could make Ulysse part of a Chimera, threatening to hurt the man if he didn't), Alice is stopped in her actions, knocked out by a sleeping medicine sprayed by Chise, who also tied up Alice's hands up , whilst she was asleep, to stop her from taking Ulysse. After Ulysse awakens, he tells Chise about his original owner, Isabel and how Chise resembles her. After that, Alice wakes up and is interrogated by Chise, who also unties her hands. Alice then tells Chise, the real reason she tried to get Ulysses. Elias emerges from Chise's shadow and accepts Alice's offer to help them stop what Alice described as, the "kid" that is blackmailing her teacher, Renfred and forcing him to collect creatures (including Ulysse) for a Chimera. Chise takes notice of Cartaphilus as he and his Chimera appear, it targets Alice, though Chise pushes her out of the way and takes a hit for her, falling to unconciousness, causing Elias to transform into a monster. Later Chise awakens and Ulysse asks Chise to make him her familiar, saying he'd rather become that than be part of Joseph's Chimera. Chise and Ulysses make the pact and Ulysse asks her to give him a new name and she gives him the name of Ruth. Ruth then attacks Cartaphilus' Chimera, which was made up of Isabel's corpse and later leaves the scene with Chise and Elias, after Elias tells Cartaphilus to never bother them again. Ruth, from then on, is always seen accompanying or at least near Chise, whether in his human or dog form. College Arc Skills and Abilities Familiar Like any other familiar, he consumes Chise's magic and serves her as a loyal and benefitting familiar. As Chise Hitori's familiar, he: shares his lifespan with her (as part of the general familiar contract) is able to see into her dreams can be called upon from long distances through a mind link and through the same way, read her mind. However, they are still separate entities Shadow Ruth can hide in Chise's shadow. Quotes "If Isabel's alone when she wakes up, that'll be lonely. That's why I'll wait forever." Trivia In Official Guidebook: Merkmal, his height is 160cm (5'3") and after shrinking from 183cm (6'). The series is serialized in Mag Garden's Monthly Comic Garden magazine and is licensed in North America by Seven Seas Entertainment. A three-part prequel OVA of the manga was animated by Wit Studio as well as an anime television series adaptation that aired from October 2017 to March 2018. An original three-part OVA series by Studio Kafka will be released from September 2021. Plot Having been ostracized by both her relatives and partially by society, orphaned Japanese high school student Chise Hatori decides to sell herself at an auction in order for somebody else to take her in and have a new place to call home. At the auction in London, she is sold for five million pounds to Elias Ainsworth, a seven-foot-tall humanoid with an animal skull for a head. This magus, who seems closer to a demon than human, either brings her the light she desperately seeks or drowns her in ever deeper shadows in her new country, Great Britain. The series deals with a romantic slice-of-life storyline in a surreal and supernatural light. Characters Chise Hatori (羽鳥智世, Hatori Chise) Voiced by: Atsumi Tanezaki[6][7][8] (Japanese); Dani Chambers[9] (English) A teenage apprentice and future bride of Elias Ainsworth. Her father and brother abandoned the family when she was young, and her mother committed suicide in front of her causing her to feel unwanted by her relatives. She allows herself to be sold into slavery so someone will take her in. She is sold for 5 million Pounds to Elias. He tells her she is a Sleigh Beggy, a special magus who can draw magic from her surroundings and from within herself. However, this severely strains their bodies, making Sleigh Beggys very weak, and fated to die prematurely. Hence, Elias bought her with hopes of preventing her early death in about three years. Her small and fragile state has led others to give her the nicknames of Robin, and Little Bird Mage. She frequently receives gifts that suppress her magic to maintain her health. After being taken in by Elias she starts practicing magic, and finds she has a talent for sleep magic, but can also perform any type of magic at the cost of tremendous strain on her body. Elias Ainsworth (エリアス・エインズワース, Eriasu Einzuwāsu) Voiced by: Ryota Takeuchi[6][7] (Japanese); Brian Mathis[9] (English) He is known as "Pilum Muralis" (lit. "Wall Spear"), the Child of Thorns, and the Thorn Mage. He is Chise's master and fiancé, once apprenticed to Master Lindenbaum. A being with both fae and human elements, his origins are a mystery. It is hinted that he was born from the shadows of the forest, but his humanlike traits also imply that he was a mage who dabbled in black magic, consequently losing his humanity and memories. The other faeries see him as an abomination, something he does not mind. Occasionally he uses glamour spells to hide his animalistic appearance taking on a similar look to people he knows or sees. In the series he first resembles Simon, then Chise, and then an unknown woman. He can summon and control thorns, and transform into shadows. When angry enough, he adopts a more monstrous form consisting of various animal parts, such as a fish tail, wings or a snake body. Lindenbaum calls him a child in regards to Elias' limited understanding and sensations of human emotions. To this end, Elias purchases Chise partially because she is a rare Sleigh Beggy, but also with hope she can teach him about human feelings and behavior. He dislikes children because they often see through his shadow magic and fear him. The ones that don't fear him ask a lot of questions about him he can't answer. Ruth (ルツ, Rutsu) Voiced by: Kōki Uchiyama[6][7] (Japanese); Austin Tindle[9] (English) He is Chise's familiar, a Church grim who was originally a graveyard guard dog who chased away grave robbers and evil spirits. He was formerly called Ulysse (ユリシィ, Yurishī) and used to be owned by Isabel. He initially thinks of himself as a human, keeping a human form until he later recalls his true identity. He shares a mental link with Chise and considers her a sister. Ruth's dog form resembles an Irish Wolfdog, although this form can change much like Elias, and he sometimes travels in Chise's shadow. Angelica Varley (アンジェリカ・バーレイ, Anjerika Bārei) Voiced by: Yūko Kaida[8] (Japanese); Janelle Lutz[9] (English) She is an old acquaintance of Elias. She is a mage and a technician of the Magus Craft. Her father was a technician of the Magus Craft. Even though her father was a magician, Angelica, who only had the quality of a sorcerer, could not directly learn the ways of her father. She worked hard to find her own method of performing magic. She later married, and had a daughter named Althea. Silver (シルキー, Shirukī, "Silky") Voiced by: Aya Endō[6][7] (Japanese); Rachel Glass[9] (English) She is the fairy landlady of the house where Elias and Chise reside. Originally a banshee, she is now a silent silkie and takes care of the housekeeping duties in the household. While protective of Chise, she strongly dislikes Simon Kalm the village priest, glaring at him when he enters Elias' house and wrapping her arms around Chise to protect her. Lindenbaum (リンデル, Rinderu, "Lindel") Voiced by: Daisuke Namikawa[10] (Japanese); Todd Haberkorn[9] (English) Commonly called Lindel, he is Elias's magician master, and he lives in the Land of Dragons. Guarding the last sanctuary of dragons, he is the caretaker of the dragon's nest. His title is Echoes: Song of Flowers, and is many centuries old. Leanan Sídhe (リャナン・シー, Ryanan Shī) Voiced by: Saori Hayami[6][7] (Japanese); Morgan Garrett[9] (English) She is a beautiful vampiric faerie who loves men and gives them talent at the cost of dying young. She had strong feelings for an old man named Joel Garland, but denied that they were in love as love would mean his inevitable death. Unfortunately, her presence was already killing him unintentionally at a slow rate. After learning this, Chise created a remedy that allowed them to see each other one last time. After Joel's passing, she tells Chise she will be living in Joel's garden and will not look for more lovers anymore. She later received the name, Redcurrant (レッドカラント Reddokaranto), as Joel and Chise noted her eyes were the same color as the flower in Joel's Garden. Simon Kalm (サイモン・カラム, Saimon Karamu) Voiced by: Toshiyuki Morikawa (drama CD)[6] (Japanese); Tyler Carson[9] (English) He is the priest of the local church in the English town occupied by Elias and Chise, and was assigned the task of observing Elias. He has a breathing condition that is treated by Elias's medicine. Michael Renfred (ミハイル・レンフレッド, Mihairu Renfureddo) Voiced by: Satoshi Hino[10] (Japanese); Jarrod Greene[9] (English) He is an alchemist who apparently hates Magi and magicians, but still cares for his apprentice Alice. He was scarred in the face while protecting Alice, and later allowed Cartaphilus to take his left arm as material for an experiment in place of Alice. He later rebels against Cartaphilus, and also becomes interested in finding a way to prevent Chise's premature death. Alice (アリス, Arisu) Voiced by: Mutsumi Tamura[10] (Japanese); Jennifer Green[9] (English) She is Renfred's highly devoted apprentice. A former street urchin, drug abuser and drug seller, Renfred discovered her innate magic potential, and took her in as an apprentice. Despite a few rough meetings with Chise, because of their similar circumstances and having been saved by her, she ends up befriending Chise. Cartaphilius (カルタフィルス, Karutafirusu, "Cartaphilus") Voiced by: Ayumu Murase[11] (Japanese); Josh Grelle[9] (English) His true identity is "Cartaphilus", but prefers the name Joseph (ヨセフ, Yosefu) after the young gravedigger he fused with. He is known also as the Wandering Jew, or the "Magician of the Flow". He is a mysterious being that looks like a young boy, but has been around longer than even Elias. He is so old that he even refers to Ainsworth as a "little boy". Long ago, people said that "God's Son" cast an immortal curse on him for mocking him during the crucifixion, (much like Gestas); it's said his immortality will last until Judgement Day. Through this curse he is unable to die, yet his body continuously rots causing perpetual pain and suffering. While he appears mostly human, he uses the body parts of other creatures and often collects fresh pieces for his body. He travels around the world performing gruesome experiments on both living and dead creatures as well as both humans and fae in hopes of creating a body that will not decay or will give him the ability to finally die. He has persisted for so long at this that he has forgotten why he does experiments causing him to bring nothing but suffering and carnage. His one true desire is to be forgiven and be able to live a life without suffering. Joseph (ヨセフ, Yosefu) Joseph was a kind young boy who was rumored to be the son of a witch. He is in charge of digging graves for his village. The village rejected and bullied him, calling him strange and creepy because of his ability to see fae and speak with the dead. One day he hears a voice calling for help. He follows the voice and finds Cartaphilus, who looks like a shriveled up corpse. He brings Cartaphilus to his house and attempts to nurse him back to health. Cartaphilus makes Joseph feel needed causing Joseph to grow attached and he asks Cartaphilus to take him away once he is healed. Upon learning that Cartaphilus will never get better in order to take him away to a better place, a strange fusion is made between the two giving Cartaphilus Joseph's body in order to take him away from his misery. After the fusion however, both enter a state of temporary amnesia. This fusion does not stop the curse from slowly consuming both of them, rotting them from the inside out. Joseph then regains some memory after hearing about Cartaphilus' past. He then gets angry for suffering for something he didn't do and Cartaphilus does not even remember doing. Oberon (オベロン, Oberon) Voiced by: Kappei Yamaguchi[12] (Japanese); Joel McDonald[9] (English) He is the mischievous Faerie King and Titania's husband. He resembles a satyr, with hooves and deer antlers. Titania (ティターニア, Titānia) Voiced by: Sayaka Ohara[13] (Japanese); Colleen Clinkenbeard[9] (English) She is the Faerie Queen and Oberon's wife. She looks like a beautiful and buxom woman riding a donkey, but can temporarily possess other faeries. She is a proud and very kind motherly figure to Ainsworth and frequently requests he come to live with her in the faerie kingdom. She still considers Ainsworth her child as he is the shadow of nature even though he is mostly a beast. Despite repeated requests from Ainsworth not to, she feels sorry for him and wishes for his happiness because she knows he is not accepted by humans or fae and may very well never find a place in the world. Spriggan (スプリガン, Supurigan) Voiced by: Hiroki Yasumoto (Japanese); Chris Ryan[9] (English) He is Titania and Oberon's bodyguard, who dislikes Elias. He is the one who gave Silver a new purpose and name (chapter twenty-four). Rahab (ラハブ, Rahabu) Voiced by: Kotono Mitsuishi (Japanese); Lydia Mackay[9] (English) Introduced by Lindel as his master and teacher. She is older than Lindel and is the person that gave both Lindel and Elias their names. Stella Barklem (ステラ・バークレム, Sutera Bākuremu) Voiced by: Sumire Morohoshi (Japanese); Skyler McIntosh[9] (English) She is a friend of Chise and the older sister of Ethan. While visiting her grandparents over Christmas she got into an argument with Ethan, in which afterwards, he ran off into the woods. Then Stella frantically went around town looking for him, but she couldn't find him and strangely everybody but her forgot he existed. Then she ran into Chise and Elias, telling them what happened and begging for their help. They agreed to help, then found out that it was Ashen Eye that took Stella's brother. Once they saved Ethan, Stella repays Chise and Elias by baking sweets for them when she makes her monthly visit to her grandparents. Riichi Miura (三浦 理一, Miura Riichi) Voiced by: Takahiro Sakurai[8] A librarian who takes care of Chise. He is seen in The Ancient Magus' Bride: Those Awaiting a Star OVA. Ashen Eye (灰の目, Hai no Me) Voiced by: Jouji Nakata (Japanese); Greg Dulcie[9] (English) He is an ancient fae that gives Chise a magical fox skin that she can use to mutate into a were-animal of her choosing. Ashen Eye is spiteful towards humans to the point he will use them to amuse himself. Mariel (マリエル, Marieru) Voiced by: Maaya Sakamoto (Japanese); Jamie Marchi[14] (English) At first, Chise is the only one who sees or hears Mariel at Seth's auction house. Mariel later appears before Elias and Chise, revealing she's a witch, and that she may have a solution to Chise's curse. Yuuki Hatori (羽鳥 夕輝, Hatori Yuuki) Voiced by: Shinji Kawada (Japanese); Kyle Phillips (English) Chise's father. Back in Japan, he kept their neighbors from spying on them until he and his youngest son Fumiki ran away together, leaving Chise and her mother to fend for themselves. Chika Hatori (羽鳥 智花, Hatori Chika) Voiced by: Kikuko Inoue (Japanese); Rachel Michelle Thompson (English) Chise and Fumiki's late mother. Originally before her death, she was kind, loving and soft-spoken; she tried protecting her daughter from the creatures that were drawn to her--but after a while, she grew to hate her own daughter. The stress of having to care for Chise tore her apart and she decided to end her own life by killing herself in front of Chise. It is implied that in the past, Chise's mother had gone through similar things when she was younger but was able to persevere. The stress of dealing with it again alongside raising Chise was what made her susceptible to her manipulation and near strangulation of her daughter. It is through her that Chise inherited the red hair and green eyes. Fumiki Hatori (羽鳥 史輝, Hatori Fumiki) Voiced by: Hana Satō (Japanese); Katelyn Barr (English) Chise's younger brother who mysteriously disappeared with his father. Like the rest of his family, he has incredible magical energy that in the same vein as his father created a protective barrier at the family apartment to keep the neighbors away. Akiko Hatori (羽鳥 亜紀子, Hatori Akiko) Voiced by: Aya Hisakawa A distant relative of Chise through marriage, her husband Shouji forced her to take her in to avoid having a negative reputation and raised her along her two sons. However, Akiko was heavily negligent of Chise and was constantly complaining to her husband due to his business trips, leaving him to not deal with the young mage-to-be. The OVA series is animated by Studio Kafka and directed by Kazuaki Terasawa, with scripts by Aya Takaha and Yoko Yonaiyama. Hirotaka Katō returns to design the characters, and Junichi Matsumoto returns to compose the series' music.[62] Reception Volume 2 reached the 9th place on the weekly Oricon manga chart[63] and, as of September 21, 2014, had sold 104,518 copies.[64] The series had sold half a million copies as of June 2015,[65] 2.5 million copies as of March 2016,[50] and over three million as of September 2016.[66] By December 2017, the series had five million copies in print.[67] The series was number two on the 2015 Kono Manga ga Sugoi! Top 20 Manga for Male Readers survey.[68][69] It was number 36 on the 15th annual "Book of the Year" list by the Da Vinci magazine in 2014.[70] Da Vinci readers also ranked it at number two in a poll to determine the series most likely to "make their big break" in 2015.[71] The series ranked number one on a poll of 2,360 bookstore employees to determine 2015's top 15 manga series of under five volumes.[72][73] It was one of fourteen titles nominated for the eighth Manga Taishō awards in 2015.[74] Volume two appeared on The New York Times manga bestsellers list for four weeks, rising to third place for two.[75] Volume three debuted on the list at second place,[76] volume four debuted at first place,[77] and volume five debuted at fourth place.[78] Reviewing the first volume for Anime News Network, Nick Creamer gave it a grade of A−. He praised the series' art, noting that it "does great work in impressing upon the audience the same sense of wonder Chise experiences throughout. The character designs are expressive and backgrounds ornate". Commenting on the relationship between Chise and Elias, he wrote that "having this story go in a legitimately romantic direction would likely raise thorny issues of power dynamics and consent", but remarked that, as it was, the story "does a commendable job of making both Chise and Elias understandable and likable characters". He concluded his review by writing: "What conflict all these lovely details might be leading towards is a mystery so far, but the execution is so strong that I'm ready to follow wherever it leads."[79] In his review of the second volume, he admitted to coming to an appreciation of the main characters' relationship, writing that "the ambiguities of their relationship actually seem like one more fitting piece of a world where every relationship is ambiguous". He called the series' magic "classic but still refreshing". He also commented that the series' art "remains gorgeous and well-suited to the story all throughout this volume ... the backgrounds are lush and faces expressive, and the whole style has an ornate looseness to it that works perfectly for this kind of fantasy storytelling". He concluded by saying "If you have any appreciation for this style of classic fantasy storytelling, Ancient Magus' Bride is a can't-miss production".[80] References
