JPA Inspection Results: Honor Unit With Distinction (Gold Star)-Superior (3 Year Advanced Ed Accreditation-Cadre & OCHS) -Locations OCHS JROTC program In the top 10% of 1700 Army JROTC Programs NationalOur Orange County JROTC Program goals are to provide a structured environment while using the latest teaching methods and classroom dynamics to motivate and develop our students to future leaders and better citizens through Academic Excellence. Our JROTC Curriculum is nationally accredited by the North Central Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement (NCA CASI) and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Council on Accreditation and School Improvement (SACS CASI) both accreditation departments of AdvanceED.JROTC Teacher-CertificationOur JROTC teachers are retired Army leaders and professionally licensed teachers in the state of Virginia who receive professional development and performance evaluations from Orange County Public Schools. JROTC Instructor-Certification JROTC teachers must also meet and maintain Cadet Command Instructor certifications through evaluations conducted by the JROTC School of Cadet Command (JSOCC) at Fort Knox, KY. They must upgrade from a resident 5 day Army JROTC curriculum initial and certification course, JSOCC Basic Instructor Course; and after every 5 years of teaching, graduated from a 5 day resident Army JROTC curriculum intensive re-certification course, JSOCC Advanced Instructor Course. The purpose of the JSOCC CertificationJSOCC Certification ensures that all JROTC teachers across the country are able to present courses and mapping curriculum using the most dynamic teaching trends, the latest in technology-based teaching and effective teaching methods. Emphasis is placed on effective classroom management, enabling a student-centered learning environment and brain-compatible learning using a four-phase lesson plan where students at differentiated learning levels can collaborate with Ask, collect, process, and use lessons.
