For more than 35 years, Purposeful Design Publications, a division of ACSI, has provided academically rigorous textbooks that are intentionally rooted in biblical truth to equip schools and educators with the tools to eternally transform the hearts and lives of children.

Choosing the right textbooks is an important decision for your school, both financially and foundationally. Purposeful Design Publications textbooks are intentionally created with these five core values:

We believe ...

1

We believe in a strong commitment to an authentic and integrated biblical worldview.

2

We believe that textbooks must include best practices, be research based, and adhere to rigorous standards that meet or exceed national and other college- and-career-readiness standards.

3

We believe that textbooks are tools in the hands of teachers to help them achieve the desired educational outcomes.

4

We believe in providing a solid instructional foundation that incorporates additional instruction and activities for each lesson, allowing teachers easy flexibility and instructional individualization.

5

We believe in supporting educators with ongoing training to build and maintain confidence to maximize their use of PDP textbooks.

Elementary Bible (Early Education–Grade 6)

Journeying with God (Old Testament Survey) (9–10)

This survey course gives students an overview of each of the books of the Old Testament. A strong emphasis in this course is helping students see the “big picture” perspective as they study how God has worked through His people to carry out His plan of salvation. It is designed to give teachers freedom in shaping a study of the Old Testament.

Language Arts (Kindergarten–Grade 5)

The new Language Arts series incorporates research-based instruction on phonemic awareness; phonics; comprehension; fluency; vocabulary; and reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The series also includes sight word recognition; listening comprehension; language structures, including syntax and semantics; verbal reasoning; spelling; grammar; and literary knowledge. Through guided and independent writing activities, students have numerous opportunities to apply learned language constructs and skills. Additionally, the pedagogy reflected in the instruction and activities meets or exceeds national and college-and-career-readiness standards. This program promotes excellent language development and comprehension as it weaves together the wonders of oral and written language, all set within a biblical worldview.

Total Health (Middle School and High School)

Supplement your science learning with a one-semester course that biblically and scientifically addresses physical, mental, social and spiritual health.

The name of these two courses, Total Health, for students in middle and high school reflects the idea that a young person's health is multidimensional. Spiritual health influences physical, mental, and social health, and all of these play an important role in the success students experience in living up to the potential God intends for their lives.

The style is conversational, interactive and engaging. Each course is designed to present the Bible as the foundation for a healthful lifestyle and to provide students with the tools for making wise choices.

Total Health: Talking About Life's Changes

Integrates Scriptures and personal testimonies that help teens understand the value of opening up to their parent(s) and to God as they face their unique challenges.
