From the Pastor:

March was a wonderful month of seeing God at work here at SIBC. We began the month with the joy of baptizing Mack and Porch. Later, on March 22nd, Mack invited a friend to come and hear about Jesus. By God's grace, he received Christ and was baptized on the 29th! It has been especially encouraging to see friends sharing the gospel with friends – this is exactly how the Lord builds His church.

We have also begun providing sermon note sheets for the young people each Sunday. This has helped them follow along more closely and grow in their understanding of God's Word. Many of them are not only attending faithfully but also volunteering, and we are seeing increased participation on Wednesday nights as more come to learn about Jesus.

In addition, we were able to receive and organize donations of clothes and toys in preparation for future outreach. The Lord also provided for several needed property improvements, including renovating a bathroom and reinforcing a previously weak wall with solid concrete. These changes have made the space safer and more welcoming.

On a personal note, I was able to travel to Bangkok to give a ministry update to our mentor church. While there, I also resolved an issue with my teacher's license, for which I am thankful.

As we look ahead to April, we plan to begin English classes and tutoring for students in need.

Please continue to pray for open hearts and for wisdom as we serve.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support.

Your servant in Christ,
Curt Mathis
