To me, Life is the best adventure. And also a relaxing one. Logged Play me. I want to fly, I want to shine. I want to be a problem in your city. I want to be an attraction on your TV. Play me, play me, play me... This is the game's story mode. It is an excellent game. There is a lot of fun to be had here. You start as a rookie reporter with a big city paper. Here you explore the world around you. This is a survival game. You'll need to eat, drink, sleep, find shelter, and have sex. (Male or Female. Also Robots.) These are the things you need to survive. You may like some or you may not. Its up to you. You are the main character in the game. This is the way to do a sandbox game. There is a lot of stuff to do in this game. It is an open world game. You are the director of the game. You can decide what you want to do. You can walk around, or you can hop in a car and drive somewhere. I prefer walking though. This is the story mode of the game. Free roam mode is a bit hard to figure out at first. Free roam mode is very relaxing, though. I recommend trying it out. Also, I recommend trying the combat mode. I've only been playing this game for a week, but I am having a lot of fun with it. And lastly, I recommend getting the Combat Challenge mode to a level where you have no trouble surviving. Nice job on the review 520fdb1ae7
