REZA RIDE

PEDALING TOGETHER FOR INCLUSION AND UNITY

"Reza Ride is not just about cycling; it's about coming together as a community to support and uplift our LGBTQ+ brothers, sisters, and siblings. We envision a future where everyone in our community feels safe, respected, and valued. This event is a step towards realizing that vision."

Friends of the Quilt

Friends of The Quilt is a 501(c)(3) organization committed to supporting the AIDS Memorial Quilt, honoring the lives lost to the epidemic, and preventing new infections. As an HIV/AIDS prevention organization in Northeast Florida, we primarily work with communities across the Southeastern United States. However, we are pleased to partner with individuals and groups nationwide.

The mission of The Friends of The Quilt is to independently support the National AIDS Memorial – AIDS Memorial Quilt and honor and remember those who have lost their lives to AIDS-related illnesses. In doing so, we aim to make displays of The AIDS Memorial Quilt more accessible and affordable to underserved populations, minority organizations, and underfunded groups.

Our four pillars:

- Vision
- Prevention
- Education
- Eradication

The Queer Trans Project

Since our humble beginnings, The Queer Trans Project has grown exponentially, with a remarkable reach of millions of individuals across social media platforms and a substantial following of thousands of dedicated supporters. Our impact has extended beyond borders, thanks to the incredible support from our community.

We are proud to have forged meaningful partnerships with esteemed organizations such as Lush Cosmetics, GC2B, Stonewall Sports, Elevated Access, the Southern Equality Fund, the Resist Foundation, and more. These partnerships enable us to further our mission and expand the resources and opportunities we offer to the LGBTQ+ community.

Our organization is built upon four strong pillars that shape our mission and guide us:

- Authentic Representation
- Community-Rooted
- Inclusivity & Accessibility
- Honesty & Integrity

Colors Community Center

COLORS Community Center is an inclusive advocacy and social service organization actively working to meet the needs for safety, empowerment, education, and wellbeing of Northeast Florida's LGBTQIA+ community.

Our vision is to be the community center in Jacksonville where adults who identify as LGBTQIA+ can safely be themselves and access resources, without judgement or discrimination, at times when most other agencies are closed.

- To provide services when most other agencies are closed.
- To link people to the resources they need in a timely manner.
- To provide a healthy environment for managing life's stressors.
- To be a safe space where people can be themselves without judgement or discrimination.
- To be a one stop shop for free resources for the LGBTQIA+ community in Northeast Florida.
