

Face it, going out on NYE is a nightmare

This year celebrate New Year's Eve in style at home with a private chef!

Whether you love or hate going out on New Year's Eve, there is no denying there are drawbacks. Hoards of drunk revellers, overpriced booze, no chance of getting in anywhere decent, and a super-surge-priced uber to get home. Doesn't sound so appealing does it?

Travelex reports that a night out in London on NYE will set you back a whopping £336.14. But staying in doesn't mean a take-away, your dressing gown and an early night. Nor does it mean a house-party and a smashed window. This year ring in the new year in style at home.

Gather a bunch of your nearest and dearest and invite them to yours for a slap-up dinner party but without having to lift a finger yourself! How, I hear you ask? Cue La Belle Assiette, the private chef experts who bring the best elements of the restaurant to your home. Fine food cooked by your very own private chef and a kitchen that is left spotless at the end of the evening. But, unlike restaurants, you're in the comfort of your own home, you choose the music and decor, and can afford to buy some decent wines! Get stuck into dinner party games, put the countdown to 2017 on the TV, and have the Champagne on ice ready for midnight!

Your chef will arrive a couple hours before you'd like to sit down, they'll bring all the ingredients to cook the meal in your kitchen, serve you at the table and help you get into the party spirit. They'll even clear up everything before leaving you to enjoy the rest of the night! Crank up the music and see in the new year with your friends at home!

How to book:
