

Jessica began dance training at 3 attending Bobbe's Studio of Dance in Clinton where she trained in tap, jazz, ballet, and tumbling. She soon joined their Showtroupe and began competing in local and regional shows. Her love of dance and desire for more challenges led her to C&C Dance Company in Bowie where she continued her training and competitive performances. From 2007 – 2011, Jess attended Salisbury University where she performed with the Untouchables and Diana Calenti Dance Company while teaching Showtroupe classes at a dance studio in Salisbury. In 2013, she relocated to Southern Maryland where she continues to teach her favorite styles: contemporary, jazz, and musical theatre. Throughout her teaching career, Jess's choreography has been recognized, and her students have received many awards and scholarships at the regional and national levels. She is grateful for the many opportunities that dance continues to provide and loves to share her passion with her students.
