Contribution from John Coursey Get Movie Tickets & Showtimes October 5, 2020 Trinity Bui On October 8, 2020. Regal Cinemas will close all 536 U.S. theaters, including three sites in our area. This announcement follows a series of film delays, including Christopher Nolan's Tenet, Marvel's Black Widow, and the James Bond film No Time to Die. These films were postponed to 2021, while other films, such as Death on the Nile and Wonder Woman 1984, were postponed to December 0, 2020. In addition to declining ticket sales and revenues, Cineworld reported a loss of $1.6 billion in the first half of 2020. These are all affected theater locations in Prince William County, Stafford County, and Manassas City: Regal Manassas & IMAX at 11380 Bulloch Dr, Manassas, VA 20109 Regal Fredericksburg & IMAX at 3301 Plank Road Route 3W, Fredericksburg, VA 22401 Regal Virginia Gateway & RPX at 8001 Gateway Gainesville, VA 20155 This is not a decision we have taken lightly, and we have done everything in our power to support safe and sustainable reopenings in all of our markets — including meeting, and often exceeding, local health and safety guidelines in our theaters and working constructively with regulators and industry agencies to restore public confidence in our industry, cineworld's CEO said in a statement. There are some theaters in our area not belonging to Regal, and they will remain open: AMC Theaters at 2700 Potomac Mills Cir Suite 886, Woodbridge, VA 22192 Alamo Draffhouse at 15200 Potomac Town Pl #100, Woodbridge, VA 22191 Regal will continue to monitor the situation closely and will communicate any future plans to resume operations at the appropriate time when major markets have more concrete guidance on their reopening status and, in turn, studios will be able to bring their large release pipeline back to the big screen, Regal Cinemas said in a press release. There is still no reopening date scheduled for closed regal cinemas. Regal Cinemas is the anchor tenant of the long-delayed mixed-use development project The Garrison. The Pence Group bought the property for the new center five years ago and has not yet begun. Regal Cinemas is a subsidiary of Cineworld Group, the world's second largest film chain, alongside AMC Entertainment Holdings.
