Thank you for taking the time to complete this application. All applications will be carefully reviewed and you will be contacted if we have any additional questions. Please be patient while your application is reviewed. We strive to complete this stage as quickly as possible; however, please remember we are an all volunteer organization. Smitten Kittens Adoption & Rescue (SKAR) reserves the right to refuse any applicant for any reason. All completed applications become property of SKAR.

Our goal is to successfully place animals into homes where they will live permanently as a part of the family. We also strive to ensure that adoptive families receive animals that are best suited to their family. Our ultimate goal is to place the best animal with the best family, so that all will live happily ever after.
