Dunkin' is nearly 100% franchised and its chains include: Dunkin' Donuts - the largest coffee and baked goods shop chain in the world, with 3,228 international locations in 31 countries and 8,082 stores in the U.S. in 36 states and D.C. Baskin-Robbins - the largest chain of ice cream stores in the world with over 5,068 international outlets in 42 countries and 2,484 stores in the U.S. in 45 states and D.C. The company added 704 net new restaurants worldwide in 2014 with 405 net new Dunkin' Donuts in the U.S. The company has a strong presence in the Northeastern U.S. but is expanding with new Dunkin' Donut locations in California and Texas. The first Dunkin' Donuts in the Los Angeles area opened in September 2014 and the company hopes to eventually open 1,000 locations in California. Dunkin' Donuts and Baskin-Robbins are essentially 100 percent franchised. In the U.S., Dunkin' Donuts franchisees have an average network of five restaurants. There are nearly 1,200 Dunkin' Brands franchise owners and operators in the U.S. and more than 50 international partners. Baskin-Robbins Franchisees own an average of 1.5 shops. Both brands offer flexible concepts for any real-estate format, including free-standing stores, end caps, in-line sites, kiosks, gas and convenience, travel plazas, universities and other retail environments. "Highlights from our performance in 2014 included: strong domestic restaurant level unit economics; robust U.S. restaurant development for both brands, including the opening of our first traditional Dunkin' Donuts restaurants in California; growing transactions in the Dunkin' Donuts U.S. business in the face of macroeconomic and competitive headwinds; the launch of both the DD Perks loyalty program, which now has more than 2.5 million members, and Baskin-Robbins online cake ordering; and progress with the retooling of our international businesses as demonstrated by the signing of significant international development agreements in Sweden, Austria, and China," said Nigel Travis, Chairman & CEO, Dunkin' Brands Group, Inc. "Our nearly 100-percent franchised business model delivered another year of double-digit adjusted earnings per share growth, and most notably, more than 50 percent free cash flow growth. While our earnings growth expectations for 2015 are below our longer-term targets, we are committed to returning to double-digit growth in subsequent years." The company expects to open 200-300 net new stores of both brands in 2015. History William Rosenberg founded Dunkin' Donuts in 1950.
