

MY JOURNEY AS A CAMPUS DIRECTOR

by: DR. LENY QUIAWAN-AÑASCO

I was just an ordinary university instructor,
Who never dreamed of becoming a campus director.

But when I was about to become a doctor,
An Opportunity knocked right at my door.

That was May 2019, I could vividly recall,
When I received my special order and assumed the position.

That day I had mixed thoughts and emotions,
With high hopes and fervent prayers to lead then school in the right direction.

My first year as a director, I felt I was groping in the dark.
With no formal trainings or past experiences, I saw and felt the many things I lacked.

Despite the perceived deficiencies and negativities,
I boldly told myself, "You can do It and achieve success!"

True enough when my journey continues,
Courageous strides open for new avenues.
Though trial and error can be the name of my game,
Truthfulness, humility, faith and love are my weapons against shame.

Five years in the making and still now in counting,

Learning about success and failure is never ending.

Broadened horizons and brightened dreams,

Motivate me to continue this journey until it ends.
