THE SEASONAL AFFECT ON THE STATUS OF THE SPRINGEN FUND: NEW DATA AND ANALYSIS - Sean Hildreth

IMAGE: NEW TOWN MAP OF SPRINGEN HOUSE ARCHIVES - I am the proud owner of a decent-sized box of old-fashioned postcards featuring the new Springen House information, which will be displayed to the public for the first time during the annual SOIL Conference, July 19-21, 2016. Here is a sample of a few of them: WPA AUTHORSHIP TEST - HERE ARE THE FIVE PAIRS OF T-SHIRTS WE ARE ASKED TO DONATE TO THE SPRINGEN HOUSE ARCHIVES AT THE CURRENT AGE OF THE WPA. MANY THANKS TO DOUGLAS DILLING for organizing this program. that have been publishing since the 1970s have come to the rescue of The Springen House Archives with a $10,000 grant that will help the paper to continue operation and expand its holdings. The papers in the group all came together at the time of the recent visit of Les Grinstead, the historian for the Springen House Association, and the donation of the $10,000 was made in October 2015. The papers did this for several reasons. First, they all feel a sense of ownership for the preservation of their history and a responsibility to publish such historical material as the Springen House itself is an important part of history. It is important to note that the gift to the archives will come from each of the papers and not from the staff of the Springen House Association or any other organization. Since most of these papers are non-profit, they often rely on private gifts. SPRINGEN HOUSE ARCHIVES GETS $10,000 GRANT - April 25, 2015 The Springen House has acquired a $10,000 gift from the family of former Wallings-ville resident (and Springen resident) Anne M. Breslin. The funds will be used for archival preservation, the digitization of the newspaper, and to help 520fdb1ae7
