First edition 1961. The style of Afrikaans dates from the 1940s–1960s. The author deliberately used spelling which mimicks Arabic pronunciation even if those words have been taken up into mainstream Afrikaans with a different spelling or pronunciation. It is a literal translation, but the text reads like normal, idiomatic Afrikaans, with a few errors. The word 'surah' was translated 'hoofstuk' (meaning 'chapter'). The book does not contain the Arabic text.A newer Afrikaans translation of the Qur'an was made using the principles of dynamic equivalence, but that version is not popular among Afrikaans Muslims.Io Mitke Qafëzezi, 1921.Feti Mehdiu, 1985.Hasan Efendi Nahi, 1988.H.
