ENGLISH IN ACTION Understanding Customs

A CRMS Discuss these customs in the United States. Is each custom the same or different in the country where you were born?

Women sometimes hug or kiss a friend once on the cheek when they meet.

Men often shake hands or give a friend a pat on the back when they meet.

People stand a comfortable distance apart when they speak.

People stand in line at buses, stores, and ticket counters. It is not polite to push or cut in line.

B In a group, talk about customs in your country and in the United States.

1. When you enter a house, do you remove your shoes?
2. What time do people arrive for meetings and appointments?
3. If you are invited to dinner, do you bring a gift for the host?
4. If you are invited to a party that begins at 9:00, what time do you arrive?
5. What US custom do you find very different from your country?
