[ShowHide]Lion Studios – creator of the popular Happy Glass, Save The Girl and Mr Bullet series have released a new product. It's Pawn Master, a simulation game that allows you to see life from the perspective of a pawn shop boss. You will build your billionaire's career and dreams through the purchase and sale of activities. The things that appear in this game give you an overview of the work of pawnbrokers, with many interesting stories. GameplayYou owns a pawn shop. Your job is to be over the counter receiving the items that customers bring. Having heard this, many people think that they themselves must have experience in reviewing and pricing items. But no, the vetting machine does all that. Scans the item and then gives you some information about: the type of item, its condition Price. After the scan is complete, you can buy or reject, with two actions or s pulling right, or left, similar to Tinder. Most items you buy after purchase should be polished. You just need to press the Polish button, then tap and hold for a while. The item will be dressed up as new. The value of the item will increase, you can decide to sell it quickly or keep it in stock. Don't be in too much of a hurryInitially, you've only been awarded $1,000. With this capital, you can use it to buy other people's belongings and sell it for a larger amount. However, some people often see immediate benefits and quickly sell the item immediately after the polishing moment. The source of profit is not much, up to 100% of the value. But if you have enough money to run a business for a while longer, you should keep more items because there are a lot of customers who need to buy them. They will offer a good price, and this is your chance to get rich faster. Trade with thieves Most of the time, amateur thieves steal someone's belongings, then take them to a pawnshop to trade and get money. You'll meet people like that, and the scanner will give a warning about stolen items. You have two options. Or become an upright businessman, report to the police to arrest criminals. Or get stolen counterfeit items cheap, and sell them at a higher price. All in all, Pawn Master is a reflection of real society. Your pawn shop offers a wide range of services. Buyers can visit for sale or something, even they want to borrow some money. You may choose to accept their request with profits or reject them for acts of lack of trust. Occasionally you will also come across thieves or robbers. They carry weapons, accompanied by threats. If you can deftly decline, you can still continue with your business smoothly. There is a service called PawnBroker in Society, which sells everything globally; focus and one item, but will all that nations offer. In other words, if you need money, you go there to sell personal items and then receive money that matches the value of the item. This article will introduce you to Pawn Master, a simulation game that owns Pawn Shop, where you build a career by trading items with everyone. This game also gives you many interesting things to relax, as well as experience many funny situations. OPEN YOUR PAWNSHOP The pawn shop is where people go to buy leftovers from others, and at the same time a place to sell unnecessary things so they have little money. Pawn master will re-imagine all the processes of trade for the player, including the mold for item analysis, prices and negotiations. Players need to know how to bid perfectly so the benefits are always on their side, and not all NDCs will have any thoughts regardless of the decision the player makes. From there, players will collect everything, sell, trade and even show items that are considered stolen. The store owner is you and you'll do anything to make money. BROWSE EVERYTHING USING A SMART SCANNER When managing a store, players will be assisted by a versatile scanning engine, capable of identifying its price, condition, name and origin upon completion of the scan. Based on the actual value that can be scanned, the player must negotiate the right price and then sell them at a higher price to those in need. However, players must also monitor police reports of stolen items, and the system will automatically archive for the player. If a player knows an item has been stolen but still wants to sell it, the store will be searched and suffer major economic damage. COLLECT ALL AND PRESENT ON STORE SHELVES The customer will continuously go to the player's store to negotiate the price of each item, and if after reaching an agreement these items are automatically harvested into the player's inventory. The player's repository can be expanded and upgraded with more functionality, and the player should prioritize taking care of expensive items and presenting them in the most prominent places. Player revenue always comes from auctions or when buyers buy new things. However, the negotiating mechanism will still exist during the sale because people always want the best price for themselves. TAKE PART IN A STREET AUCTION If players participate in street auctions, they can collect a lot of valuable items in any warehouse they win. The auction rule is simple, the player will bid for random warehouses, in which there will be many different items, but the owner of the warehouse will give random value. Everything is random, and it is also accidental for a player to make a profit after having a warehouse. Being a pawn shop owner is always a business challenge, as it involves many random factors. But if you want to experience that kind of work, then Pawn Master will be an option You, it even gives you infinite joy when negotiating with customers. Guests.
