

CONSCIOUS ART

By  NEOSUTRAS

Neosutras creatives representing innovative vision and enhancement of traditional art forms with latest word technology. The mission of our artistry is to bring mindfulness in the mainstream, using wellness knowledge and universal art language. We are advocating for healing through art and representing conscious art collective.

Neosutras is performance duo, futurists, innovators, which creations empowered by the practice of yoga, meditation, dance, nature and exploration of human potential and empowerment.

NeoSutras movement style is a bold new dance fusion created by Pola Rubis & Lamonte Goode (world-known yogi and influencer as CYBERYOGA ), inspired by sacred geometry - the geometrical laws which govern everything in existence as a combination of yoga, breakdance, contemporary and acrobatics. This innovative art of dance merges ancient wisdom and modern body-mind-soul teachings, as it captures universal oneness and human synergy through strong and sensual movement that connects past, present and future. Their mission is to awaken our audience to the infinite consciousness possibilities through the mindful, empowering and meaningful body movement style of NeoSutras. Pola & Lamonte is the first in the world yogis that 3D scanned over 100 unique, self-created asanas and presented genesis on the SuperRare. BTS VIDEO Neosutras represents unity and inclusion. As an interracial couple with leading artist Pola Rubis, who stands for woman empowerment.

Both artists are thought leaders sharing the art for love within families and self, emphasizing the importance of the harmony of human connection.

Neosutras work has been features at the leading traditional and digital art fairs. Innovative approach of representation of the performance art in fusion with mixed media, sculpture, volumetric technology, 3D scan, AI and VR is the main focus of their artistic exploration.

VR GUIDED MEDITATION

By  NEOSUTRAS

Neosutras is a first world yogis and visionary artists who have pioneered a tool aimed at promoting well-being and facilitating mental health healing through the medium of their art. They achieve this by employing 3D scans of their signature asanas, which are then represented in virtual reality (VR) along with high-frequency music and guided meditation.

Neosutras leverages technological solutions to enhance human vitality and recognizes the potential of technology for the greater good. Presently, their VR meditation experiences are accessible at galleries and private events.
