

ABOUT STEVEN

Steven A. Hauer is a Minnesota Author and speaker who shares his true story of survival, faith, and second chances. After a life-changing accident as a teenager, Steven now uses his story to encourage others through hope, healing, and the reminder that life can change in an instant.

Steven believes his life was spared for a reason. Through his book and community events, Steven hopes to connect with people who have faced fear, pain, grief, or unexpected challenges. His message is simple: your story is not over, and even the hardest moments can become part of a greater purpose.

I'M ON A MISSION

I believe God spared my life for a reason. Through my story, I want to reach people in the community with a message of faith, hope, healing, and second chances.

MY GOAL

My goal is to encourage others who are facing pain, loss, fear, trauma, or difficult seasons in life. By sharing what happened to me, I hope others are reminded that healing is possible and that their life still has purpose.

THE MESSAGE

One Inch Between Life and Death is more than a survival story. It is a true story about faith, family, recovery, and learning that life can change in an instant.

WHY THIS STORY MATTERS

One Inch Between Life and Death is a true story about faith, survival, family, and second chances.

What happened in one moment changed Steven's life forever. But the message is not only about what happened that day. It is about what came after: healing, faith, purpose, and learning that life can change in an instant.

Steven shares this story to encourage people facing fear, pain, grief, trauma, or difficult seasons in life.
