CSW Admissions Process Addendum (for domestic students)

This addendum is to confirm that henceforth, the admissions process for the Community Support Worker program at First College will be as follows:

Application Process

- Students must submit all necessary documents in order for their application to be reviewed for admission. This includes:
 - Application form
 - Application fee ($150.00)
 - Scanned copy/picture of government-issued photo I.D.
 - Proof of one of the following:
 - A) B.C. high school diploma, B.C. Adult Graduation Diploma, General Education Development, or an equivalent secondary school completion from another jurisdiction; or
 - B) the student has a mature student status: at least 19 years of age and proof of completion of Grade 10 English. Please note: College courses determined to be equivalent to completion of Grade 10 English (or higher) by post-secondary institutions are accepted and applicants must submit transcripts to evidence completion. A minimum of a C grade is accepted.
- For non-native speaker, if the student is waiting for an English test result, they may be issued a Conditional Letter of Acceptance if all other requirements are met.
- Once all admission requirements are met, students will receive the official Letter of Acceptance and Enrollment Contract.

Please note, if you are applying for the WorkBC funding, the application fee ($150) will be refunded once you have applied.
