Launcher is one of the most customizable parts on Android. Not only that. Android smartphones can't work without launchers, including a home screen and a catalog of all apps on the device. That's why all devices have a default launcher. For example, Google Pixel has a pre-installed Pixel launcher. Why use third-party launchers? There are many launchers available to replace the default launcher, but why do you need to replace the launcher supplier? The answer is simple because third-party launchers offer different settings for users serving different needs. Android launchers are getting smarter, bringing more features over the years, and there are so many options that you don't know which launcher is right for you. To save you from searching through hundreds of launchers on the Play Store, here's a list of the best launchers on Android 2020. Note: This list is not a priority order. You have to choose a launcher according to your needs. The best Android Launcher 2020 Download Nova Launcher for Android Nova Launcher really is one of the best launchers on the Play Store. It's fast, efficient and easy. Nova Launcher supports custom docks, notification icons that allow you to display frequently used apps at the top of the app box, set up folders, icons, and more. It also supports app shortcuts that you can see in Android Nougat. The paid version opens up a lot of useful features. Download the Evie launcher for Android Evie Launcher, designed for performance purposes and is one of the fastest Android launchers. Many people turn to this launcher because of its smoothness. Universal Search allows users to search for the app from one place. It also has a variety of shortcuts and customizes the home screen. Users can also set up an app drawer and folder grid. One of the reasons Evie is on this list is that it allows users to choose different search engines. The only downside of this launcher is that it doesn't have many gestures. In short, it is a lightweight launcher that delivers speed and simplicity. 3. Buzz Launcher Download Buzz Launcher for Android Buzz Launcher App for Android has a unique feature called Homepack Buzz. It is a home screen setting service with over 700,000 screens downloaded and shared by thousands of users. Launcher has a built-in app locker and RAM cleaner, so you don't need to install more apps to do so. This launcher has many gestures that can access shortcuts with just one hand swipe on the home screen. Android phone acceleration trick after a while using The Extra Feature of this launch Screen Effects, similar to dynamic wallpaper, but instead of wallpaper it will be overlaying that effect of snow/fall, falling leaves floating on the screen. The unique problem with this Buzz Launcher is that it can't use icon packages and themes on the Play Store. Download Apex Launcher for Android Apex Launcher is a stunning visual launcher app with thousands of themes and icons that you can download from the Play Store. A lightweight app optimized for both smartphones and tablets. You can add up to 9 customizable home screens and hide unsympathetic apps in your app drawer by ingesting apps in boxes by name, installation date, or frequency of use. With the paid version, you'll unlock some eye-catching features, add box editing options to the app, and more. It is also one of the fastest launchers for Android. 5. Niagara Launcher Download Niagara Launcher for Android Niagara Launcher for Android users is looking for minimalist launchers with multiple options. Since Niagara doesn't have many options and settings, this is one of the fastest launchers on the Google Play Store. The app has no viruses or sponsored ads. With low capacity, this launcher runs smoothly on the low-profy of all devices. Apps Low-tech Android 6. Smart Launcher 5 Get Smart Launcher 5 for Android Smart Launcher 5 is another lightweight and fastest Android launcher app on the list. It has the ability to edit the app drawer into sections that contain applications in different categories. When you initially set up the app will ask you which apps to use by default, so you should be annoyed when the app's default notifications suddenly appear. This Android launch vehicle has an extremely attractive mode to hide the navigation bar that creates more space on the screen. In addition, it will change the theme depending on the color of the background. Although the free version has some gestures, it is limited to add more gestures you need to buy a version of The Pro. Get Microsoft Launcher for Android Microsoft Launcher (formerly known as Arrow Launcher) is a fast Android launcher app with many settings from Microsoft. It can update new wallpapers every day from Bing. The home screen is decorated with the same Microsoft Timeline feature as Google Maps. It has a table showing recently used media or contacts. An outstanding feature of the Microsoft launcher is the synchronization of the entire Microsoft account. However, there are still drawbacks that don't offer as many editing options as other launcher applications here. 8. ADW Launcher 2 Download ADW Launcher 2 for Android Launcher works pretty stable, easy to use and offers hundreds of customization options. Its user interface is similar to the original Android. It supports a unique function to change the color of the interface according to the wallpaper flexibly. There are also icon icons, app indexing in app boxes, launcher shortcuts, animations and more. This is probably one of the launchers that offers the most customizable user to be on this list. 9. Google Now Launcher Download Google Now Launcher for Android Google Now Launcher is an internal launcher application developed by Google. This app was created for people who don't have a Pixel device and don't want to use the default launcher, wanting a more realistic Android experience. Unlike other launchers, this Android launcher adds a Google Now map just by swiping to the right of the screen Main. In addition, you can customize the design of the Google search bar directly from the home screen, add the app offerings at the top of the screen, set up the app drawer. 10. Rootless Launcher Download Rootless Launcher for Android Rootless Launcher is an open source project to bring all the features of the Pixel launcher to Android devices. If you want to own the Android Pie launch feature, you definitely can't ignore this launcher. Although it doesn't have as many options as other launchers on this list, it has most of the features of the Google Pixel device. Monday, October 14, 2019 11:49 11:49
