A Through the estimate – 20 points Were estimated eight or more optional targets during the HK-55 configuration exercise. Which choice you choose (either attack or ban, it doesn't matter). You get a pop-up achievement when you complete your recruitment mission. If you've already done your recruitment, you'll have to do it on another character. 1. Chemical barrel 2. Artistic décor (there are two, destroy one will work) 3. Ammunition 4. Laboratory equipment 5. Explosive pipe 6. Target yourself 7. Goal HK-55 alone 8. A chaser within the target range. Hidden Achievement: Simulated Meatbag – 20 pts This is a hidden achievement. You will have to be abolished by HK-55 for educational purposes. To do this, you will need to find another player who is also in the configuration phase of the HK-55 recruitment mission. Enter their instance and have their HK-55 goal and terminate you for achievement. Special thanks to Futasha and Theophilus for the Ebon Hawk for come up with this. This achievement gives you a legacy title: Simulated Meatbag Blizz Complete Chapter X of the Story Completed to Findman (Yuun Recruitment Mission) 1. Collect a save for Blizz until you reach a rank 10 influence with him (bounty hunter can skip it if they're already on impact 10) Rescue can be found in Starship Graveyard. You will need 20 to reach the rank of 10 impacts with them (each rescue gives 500 impacts). The rescue is located only within the search circle at Starship Cemeteries and is called rescue only. Don't get confused by all the freighter rescue and other things in the area. All rescues look alike and spawn in fixed locations. They will despair soon after the player has collected them. I wrote down a map of their locations (not all of them). If there are too many people in the area, you may only benefit from camping one. Each can give you 1-3 1-3 parts you need to give to Blizzo. Respawn times it seems to be a few minutes. Otherwise, have fun going blind while trying to search for gray objects in a bright white background. Rescue can be found in the mission item card. Delivery of items to four associates There are two hidden achievements for correctly guessing each coworker's name and giving them items. So don't screw up this part or you'll have to do it on another character. Achievements show when you're done recruiting Blizzo. If you don't see your associates, you're going to need a rally. Beware that the last map of the heroic zone and killing rakghouls there can bring out heroic mobs that can kill very quickly. If someone has already set up probes at your location, you can just wait for them to finish and everyone gets credit for it. After that, head to sarlaac pit in Tatooine, located in the northern part of Dina. After you set up the probe, they'll tell you to collect a recovered specimen, which isn't there for some people. If that happens, the character selection relogue and the log back will fix it.
