

December 7, 2009

Business briefs: Terry Wynter shop among top 10 in U.S.

Terry Wynter Auto Service Center was named among the top 10 auto shops in the nation by MotorAge magazine.

The shop, at 3811 Fowler St. in Fort Myers, will be featured in the December issue of the magazine's Top Shop Awards for 2009.

The magazine judges businesses on the merits of community service, industry participation, customer service, marketing, philosophy and commitment to technology.

For more information, visit terrywynterauto.com.

Chamber, business to host talent show

The Southwest Florida Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and CONRIC PR & Marketing will host Southwest Florida's Got Talent! on Tuesday at The Edison Restaurant in Fort Myers.

Networking, cocktails and a hot buffet will kick off the event starting at 5:30 p.m. The talent show and celebrity judging will be from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The competition is open to everyone. Prizes are valued at up to $850, including a three-night, four-day cruise for two.

Admission for contestants and guests is $10 and includes the buffet.

To participate in the talent contest or become a sponsor, call 418-1441 or e-mail info@hispanicchamberflorida.org.

Financial advisers named to council

Nadine Wilkes and Paul Weinstein of Weinstein Wilkes Financial Group in Fort Myers have been named to Raymond James Financial Services Inc.'s 2010 Executive Council.

Both are certified financial planners and managing partners of the independent firm.

Executive Council honors are presented to financial advisers who have demonstrated a high level of commitment to clients through personal service and professional integrity.

Consultant hosts program in Mexico

Joshua A. Sky of The Sky's the Limit Consulting recently gave a presentation in Guadalajara, Mexico.

It was his first time presenting the program, "A Foundation of Success: Better Understanding Yourself and Others," in both English and Spanish.

Participants were from Syngenta Seeds Inc., a Switzerland-based biotechnology company.
Esteros-based Sky's The Limit Consulting offers employee training and facilitation programs.
