No one likes to read plus especially because of the consumption of the time that it takes. I'm at H level right now, but I'll be looking for other levels as well. Because of something going on about copyright claims or something I am now unable to post Reading Plus responses on this blog. I am very sorry and understand that it will be frowned upon by many. Please comment on your support so I can plead guilty and get RP answers back in and running again. Thank you for your support over the last 9 months.
